2 (e) Another most ugly feature of the town is that nearly 50% of the town has for its properties, ruined houses Big plots of open land are full of such houses and their debris Some portion of the town lends appearance of some old ruins Municipality has not raised a single finger to remove these eyesores They are not only eyesores, but are an indirect source of unhealthiness in the town as these ruined structures form very convenient and handy places for dumping all sorts of rubbish, for harbouring rats and vermin, and for committing nuisance This is the first job which the Municipality should tackle by employing a gang of about a dozen coolies for a year or two till all these ruined houses and mud enclosures are erased to ground and the plots levelled up

It is very necessary that Bye-laws be framed empowering the Municipality to assume all such abandoned sites They can thus clear the remains of the ruined houses and clear the site The resale will reimburse them
